RIMPTA Training Announcement

Field Force Operations

Program Date: October 7-9, 2021

Time: 0830-1630 (3 days)

Location: Camp Fogarty, East Greenwich

The Rhode Island State Police, in conjunction with the Department of Homeland Security Center for Domestic Preparedness (CDP), is hosting a Field Force Operations Course. This FREE three day training will be held at Camp Fogarty in East Greenwich on 0830-1630, October 7-9, 2021. The CDP has a minimum forty-eight (48) seat requirement to conduct non-resident training with a maximum of sixty (65) seats available for students. There is limited seating available for this course

Who should attend:

Law Enforcement, Military and Emergency Management decision makers who require strategic level training on mass gathering Field Force Operations incident management.

Overview:

The three-day Field Force Operations (FFO) course provides law enforcement and security officers with instruction in protest types and actions, legal considerations, responsibilities of mobile field force teams, and crowd-control methods. The course culminates with a series of hands-on activities that allow responders to practice all of the learned skills (baton-holding positions, mass-arrest procedures, and riot-control formations) in a realistic context.

Below are some, but not all, of the critical skill sets learned during this training program:

- Identify considerations of a protest situation.
- Use equipment to control crowds.

- Execute positions in crowd-control squad formations.
- Position yourself within a mass-arrest team to apprehend, search, and detain a subject.

This workshop is offered free of charge. To register, please complete the attached registration form and fax or e-mail to Mrs. Donna Lavalley at (401) 205-2501, donna.lavalley@risp.gov, by Friday, September 24, 2021.
